

Professional Learning Opportunities by CALPRO

CALPRO is pleased to offer a number of PROFESSIONAL LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES for the months of May and June 2017.

CALPRO will be offering a Communities of Practice on Effective Teaching for Adult Educators (Fairfield-Suisun) in May.

This May CALPRO will host the 2017 Professional Learning Communities Institute in Sacramento.

CALPRO will also host the Adult Education Research Webinar Series event “Skills of U.S. Incarcerated Adults: PIAAC Study.” Katie Landeros, of American Institutes for Research, will provide an overview of results from a recently released study called the Program for International Assessment of Adult Competencies (PIAAC) Prison Study. This study contains information on skills and competencies of incarcerated adults and compares them to those of adults in U.S. households. The study also includes information on the extent of inmates’ participation in formal education and job training programs.

CALPRO will also host an Instructors Forum Webinar Series event “Working with ELLs in CTE and other Classes.” Dr. Heide Wrigley, of Literacywork International, will offer strategies for any instructors of English Language Learners who are looking for effective ways to engage students working to reach their career goals and are challenged by their lack of English language skills. Learn how to meet the needs of these learners while not neglecting the rest of the class.
