

A heartfelt and sincere thank you to the following for their work in making this Symposium a reality:

To NCSALL: for the idea of holding the Symposium in CA; for help planning the program structure and design; developing the abstract format; supporting the travel of many of the presenters; and donating some of the drawing prizes

John Comings

Cristine Smith

Hal Beder

Beth Bingman

Steve Reder

To CA Department of Education, Adult Education Office: for supporting the idea of holding the Symposium in CA; promoting the Symposium statewide and nationally; helping plan the program; conducting the reflection sessions; and assisting with on-site registration

Wendi Maxwell

Jean Scott

Rosemarie Cordova

Cindy Guzman

Diana White

To the American Institutes for Research and CALPRO: for planning the program; publicizing the event; developing the online registration system and processing the registrations; coordinating with the hotel regarding the room and food functions; developing the evaluation and other forms; duplicating materials and assembling the binders; conducting the How to be a Wise Consumer of Research session; organizing the student panel; identifying discussants for each session; providing audio-visual equipment and support; and providing oversight to the entire event

Mary Ann Corley

Ellen Oka-Van Allen

Erik Jacobson

Nicole Amador

Chris Cavalli

Neil Graham

Larry Condelli

Crystal Hagan

Mark Kutner

To OTAN: for setting up the Symposium Web site; coordinating the audio-visual equipment for the meeting rooms; videotaping the opening session; identifying persons for the student panel; and helping promote the event

John Fleischman

Linda West

Marian Thacher

Scott Dowell

Alan Galbraith

Linda Swanson

To LAUSD: for taking photographs of the Symposium events and preparing a photo journal

Ted Johnson

To Sacramento City Schools, Division of Adult Education: for arranging all the hospitality, including evening dinner excursions, drawing prizes, tokens for presenters and discussants, and information about cultural events in and around Sacramento

Nancy Compton

Sue Gilmore

To CDLP: for providing audio-visual equipment and support

Dennis Porter

To CASAS: for helping plan the event

Autumn Keltner

Pat Rickard

Richard Stiles

To the CALPRO Research-to-Practice Task Force: for helping plan the event:

Nancy Arnold

Sue Gilmore

Nancy Hampson

Carol Hirota

Sally Ianiro

Jacques LaCour

Sheila Shaw

Sandy Steiger

John Tibbetts